

Krista L. Allison, J.D.
Stark Education Partnership, Inc.

Krista L. Allison currently serves as program support strategist for Stark Education Partnership, Inc. and family and community engagement and DEI+B Consultant, State Support Team Region 9; in the areas of cradle to career, Ohio's Whole Child Framework, family and community engagement, and diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging.

For more than 20 years, Krista has served in leadership roles at the state, county, and school district levels. Krista has advised public officials on education regulations, provided training and coaching to education leaders, and created and implemented strategic policies, programs, and systems to address the equitable academic and non-academic needs of all students in Ohio schools.

Krista volunteers throughout the community, from local foodbank ministries to serving on various boards, and is a lead facilitator for the Dismantling Racism Coalition of Stark County. Krista has led a women's Bible Study for the past seven years. She is also active in her church (Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church) and sorority (Stark County Alumnae Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated).

Krista holds a Bachelor of Arts from Baldwin-Wallace University and a Juris Doctorate from Case Western Reserve University. She is an Institute for Educational Leadership Policy Fellow, Ohio Early Childhood Leadership Fellow, and a member of Leadership Stark County's 35th Class Signature Program. Her biggest joy is her family. She is married to Adrian E. Allison, and they have two daughters, Averi and Anastasia.
